

LIBER.
I AM A GOOD AND WELL MADE PLAIN
CHARLES DUPEE IS MY MASTERS NAM[E]
HE IS THE MAN THAT FORMED ME
HIS FAITHFUL SERVANT I WILL BE
Feb. 27, 1787

Important Eighteenth Century Jointer Plane at Auction
Saturday, April 18, 2015, Holiday Inn, Nashua, NH
Martin J. Donnelly Auctions (800) 869-0695/mjd@mjdauctions.com
The Personal Jointer Plane of Charles Dupee, Wrentham, Massachusetts
Lot 776. This is likely the most historically significant American 18th Century plane ever sold at public auction. It was the personal working plane of Charles Dupee, planemaker of Wrentham, Massachusetts. It is ornamented with pewter inlay, including a plate inscribed as shown above. Additional details in auction catalogue or at mjdauctions.com. Length= 36 1/4 Inches. Est. $8000-$16000